

Privacy Statement

Viva Industrial Trust (VIT) is committed to protecting its stakeholders' and shareholders' personal data in accordance with the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act ("PDPA").

VIT and its agents may collect and store information through the use of "cookies" when you access VIT's websites (Websites), such as the name of your internet access service provider, websites that referred you to the Websites, the pages that you request for, and the date and time of those requests.

VIT and its agents shall use such information to generate statistics and improve the contents of the Websites, and shall not provide the information to any unrelated company for that company's independent use or any other third party unless otherwise required by law. You may disable cookies from being stored on your computer by changing your browser settings. Disabling cookies may impair the functionality and services of the Websites. VIT and its agents do not have access to or control over cookies on websites which may be hyperlinked from the Websites or that are hyperlinked to the Websites.

VIT does not collect or store information that will individually identify you (such as name, mailing address, email address or phone number) during such use unless you choose to provide that information to VIT and its agents. If you send such information that will identify you, VIT and its agents will use such information to identify you to address or resolve the matter identified in your message.

VIT and its agents may from time to time request such information (including your name, mailing address, email address, type of request or other information) to provide you with a service or correspondence such as newsletters or promotional materials, or inform you of additional information and services, or to contact you regarding changes to the contents of the Websites. We may also use such information for any other purposes for which we have obtained your consent. We may also share your information with our Trustee, for administrative purposes.

However, if you have registered your telephone number with the national Do Not Call Registry, we will not send you promotional or marketing messages via your telephone unless you have provided VIT with your consent to do so. If you have previously provided VIT with such consent, then unless this is withdrawn, we may continue to send promotional and marketing messages via your telephone.

You may send us an email at contactus@vivaitrust.com if you wish to access and/or correct your personal information provided earlier, or choose not to receive such updates. Please give VIT and its agents a reasonable amount of time to attend to your request as VIT and its agents may at times, receive large volumes of email requests of varying nature.

To safeguard your personal data, all electronic storage and transmission of personal data are secured with the appropriate security technologies, VIT and its agents use reasonable endeavour to protect personal information from loss, misuse and alteration. Only authorised employees of VIT and its agents who are bound by VIT's confidentiality obligations will have access to your personal information.

By accessing the Websites and obtaining the facilities, products or services offered through the Websites, you agree that Singapore law shall govern such access and the provision of such facilities, products and services and you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts.

The Websites may contain links to third-party websites whose data protection and privacy policies and practices differ from VIT and its agents. VIT and its agents are not responsible for the content and privacy policies and practices of third-party websites.

VIT reserves the right to amend this Privacy Statement from time to time without prior notice to you. Should there be any amendments, the revised statement will be posted on the Website and shall only apply to data collected after the effective date of the revised statement. Your continued use of the Website following any Privacy Statement posted will constitute your agreement to the new Privacy Statement as amended.

Stapled Securityholder Privacy

VIT recognises the importance of Stapled Securityholders' privacy and will not disclose Stapled Securityholders' information without their consent unless required by law. Stapled Securityholders' data is mainly used for notification of Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting.
